

The NJ Do Not Call list may be more stringent, but since when is the FCC so concerned about my freedom! The FCC balks at semi-nudity on television, but allows all types of telemarketers to invade my privacy. Let's let the New Jersey law govern the people of New Jersey. We don't see that the FCC has a better idea.